Salisbury case: "I call on the President of the European Council Donald Tusk to coordinate a response from the 28 Member States of the European Union"

I reaffirm our solidarity with the United Kingdom in the Salisbury case.

I strongly condemn this attack. This is not just an assassination attempt, but a serious attack on the security of the population. This is unacceptable.

I call on Russia to collaborate in order to shed light on this case. It is fundamental that the Convention on the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons and international commitments are fully respected.

I call on the President of the European Council Donald Tusk to coordinate a response from the 28 Member States of the European Union.
